Dear Mrs. Hall:

I have received your recent letters with enclosures, and have continued to watch the newspaper stories. They seem to have died out in the regular papers and are now confined to the Mirror and Graphic. I am still very much of the opinion that the wisest thing to do is nothing. I do not think it is worth while to answer telegrams or letters. I am sure nothing would come from them. I hope, however, that you will continue to send me any information which you may get in whatever form it may come to you.

Sincerely,

September 1, 1926.

My dear Mrs. Hall:

This is just a formal note acknowledging the receipt from you yesterday of your check for $5000 for legal fees and disbursements in the Hall-Mills case.
I understand that this is a payment made by you in behalf of your brother William Stevens.

Very truly yours,
